

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

AUSTRALIA
INSTITUTION	Hyperlink	NAME	FIELD OF RESEARCH/TEACHING	COURSE/UNIT with pure Africa focus	COURSE/UNIT with comparative Africa	CONTACT DETAILS
Australian Catholic University	Dr Melissa Bellanta	Dr Melissa Bellanta, Senior Lecturer in History, Faculty of Education and Arts	History of popular theatre and entertainment; blackface and African-American performance; social and cultural history of Australia; history of youth culture; history of emotions; gender history.			melissa.bellanta@acu.edu.au
Australian Catholic University	Dr Jean Burke	Dr Jean Burke, Lecturer in Social Work, Faculty of Health Sciences	HIV and infant feeding in East Africa; social work and community development in Africa and with African Australians; media portrayal of Africans with disabilities, particularly albinism in East Africa; Swahili usage by African Australians.			Jean.Burke@acu.edu.au
Australian Catholic University	Dr Mansura Dopico	Dr Mansura Dopico, School of Social Work, Faculty of Health Sciences	Family wellbeing and child welfare/child protection; mental health; parent/child conflict and family breakdowns of new arrival African families (migrants and refugees); cross-cultural and anti-racist practice (welfare service delivery to CALD people); female genital cutting; sexual and reproductive health of African			mansura.dopico@acu.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
- compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	Australian Catholic University	Associate Professor Michael Ondaatje	A/Prof Michael Ondaatje, Associate Professor of History,	American political and intellectual history with a particular interest in the history of African Americans and US foreign policy.			Michael.Ondaatje@acu.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	Australian Catholic University	Naomi Wolfe	Naomi Wolfe, Lecturer, Faculty of Education and Arts Dr Nell Musgrove, Lecturer, Faculty of Education and Arts		HIST327 Global Histories: First Nations and Colonisation. This unit aims to establish a broad global and comparative framework for the study of the spread of settler societies and their interactions with Indigenous peoples and cultures from the 1400s to recent history. It studies patterns across time and space in locations such as Southern Africa, New Zealand, the United States of America, Canada and Australia. POLS210 Racism in Our Times: Global Perspectives on Indigenous Politics. This unit examines what racism means in	naomi.wolfe@acu.edu.au nell.musgrove@acu.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

Australian National University	Dr Joloyn Ford	Dr Joloyn Ford, Associate Professor, College of Law	Law, governance and development (especially in sub-Saharan Africa); the role and rule of law in transitional and post-conflict societies; regulation of responsible business activity, especially in fragile and conflict-affected states; emerging regulatory frameworks on business and human rights; public policy on promoting conflict-sensitive business practices; the private sector's role in peace-building; counter-terrorism, human rights and the rule of law.	LAWS8071 Law and Governance in sub-Saharan Africa. This is a graduate course offered by the School of Law. It explores the complex ways in which law, lawyers and legal institutions are involved in governance, power and change in sub-Saharan Africa.		jo.ford@anu.edu.au
Australian National University	Associate Professor David Lucas	Associate Professor David Lucas, Academic Visitor, School of Demography	Fields of expertise are Africa; demography and population; immigration and multiculturalism; public policy health.			david.lucas@anu.edu.au
Australian National University	Dr Martine Mariotti	Dr Martine Mariotti, Senior Lecturer, Research School of Economics	Development economics and economic history; the economic and social effects of discrimination in South Africa during apartheid.			martine.mariotti@anu.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

Australian National University	Margaret O'Callaghan	Margaret O'Callaghan, Visiting Fellow, Crawford School of Public Policy	Current major research focus is on documenting the socio-economic impact of the new mining boom in North West Province, Zambia.			margaret.ocallaghan@anu.edu.au
Australian National University	Dr Helen Suich	Dr Helen Suich, Visiting Fellow, College of Asia and the Pacific	Areas of expertise include natural resource management; environment and resource economics. Area interest - South Africa and Namibia.			helen.suich@anu.edu.au
Bond University	Dr Caitlin Byrne	Dr Caitlin Byrne, Senior Lecturer, International Relations	Public diplomacy theory and practice; Australian foreign policy with a focus on Asia; people to people links in diplomatic practice; cities as diplomatic actors and brands.		INTR71-206 Global Institutions and Political Conciliation. This unit examines the nature, role and impact of global institutions such as the United Nations, NATO, the African Union and ASEAN in conflict resolution in international relations.	caibyrne@bond.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

Bond University	Dr R. James Ferguson	Dr R. James Ferguson, Director of the Centre for East-West Cultural and Economic Studies, Faculty of Society and Design	International relations, regionalism and globalisation; China's view of regional and global order.		INTR13-310 Alternative Globalisations. This unit examines alternative formulations of international relations and the global system. Case studies include examples from the Asia-Pacific, Europe, Latin America and Africa.	jferguson@bond.edu.au
Charles Darwin University	Emeritus Professor Alan Powell	Emeritus Professor Alan Powell, History and Political Science	Classical history and Northern Territory history.		MHIX211 War and Peace in World History. This unit looks at the ways in which war and peace are shaped by specific cultural and historical conditions that can only be understood in a broader international context. Case studies include South Africa, the US, Japan, Vietnam, New Zealand and Australia.	alan.powell@cdu.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	Charles Darwin University	Adriana Stibral	Adriana Stibral, Lecturer and Course Coordinator, Bachelor of Humanitarian and Community Studies (BHCS). Humanitarian, Emergency and Disaster Management Studies Program	The Bachelor of Humanitarian and Community Studies includes units that relate to International community development, development aid and humanitarian assistance, providing case studies and readings that include international examples that do not focus on a specific geographic region but may include examples from sub-Saharan Africa.		HCS260 Introduction to Humanitarian Practice HCS350 Professional Practice Placement (national/international) HCS365 Integrated Methods of Humanitarian and Community Studies DEM511 Emergency and Disaster Management in Context DEM512 Interdisciplinary Aspects of Emergency and Disaster Management DEM513 Leadership in Emergency and Disaster Management DEM514 Cultural, Social and Psychological Aspects of Emergency and Disaster Management	adriana.stibral@cdu.edu.au
--	---------------------------	---------------------------------	--	--	--	---	--

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

Charles Sturt University	Dr Chika Anyanwu	Dr Chika Anyanwu, Associate Professor of Media, School of Communication and Creative Industries	Political economy of the media; terrorism and radicalisation; creative industries; Nollywood cinema; migration and multiculturalism. Area interest - Nigeria.				canyanwu@csu.edu.au
Charles Sturt University	Ignatius Chida	Ignatius Chida, Lecturer in Social Work and Human Services	Migration and settlement issues.				ichida@csu.edu.au
Charles Sturt University	Professor Max Finlayson	Professor Max Finlayson, Director of the Institute for Land, Water and Society	Wetland ecology; water pollution, mining and agricultural impacts; invasive species; climate change; human wellbeing and wetlands; farm power and conservation agriculture for sustainable intensification in Ethiopia, Kenya				mfinlayson@csu.edu.au
Charles Sturt University	Dr Kiprono Langat	Dr Kiprono Langat, Lecturer in the School of Education	Rural teacher education and school(ing) practice; international education; rethinking social change and sustainability (indigenous Australian and Kenyan educational contexts); refugee studies.				klangat@csu.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	Charles Sturt University	Dr Ndungi Wa Mungai	Dr Ndungi Wa Mungai, Lecturer, Social Work and Education	Migrant communities; human rights; social work ethics in Kenya; African diaspora masculinities; young Sudanese men and experiences of racism in Australia.			nmungai@csu.edu.au
	Charles Sturt University	Associate Professor Gavin Ramsay	Associate Professor Gavin Ramsay, Production Animal Medicine	Curriculum development in South Africa and India; knowledge systems for decision making at farmer and policy levels; the relationship between production and food security.			gramsay@csu.edu.au
	Curtin University	Adjunct Associate Professor Joan Wardrop	Adjunct Associate Professor Joan Wardrop, School of Media, Culture and Creative Arts	Food and cultural identities; crime and policing; politics; witch hunting. Area interest - South Africa.			J.Wardrop@curtin.edu.au
	Curtin University	Dr Yirga Woldeyes	Dr Yirga Gelaw Woldeyes, Lecturer in the Centre for Human Rights Education	Native colonialism; education and the economy of violence against tradition in Ethiopia; an East African perspective for paradigm shift on maritime security in the Indian Ocean region.			Yirga.Woldeyes@curtin.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

Deakin University	Dr Samantha Balaton-Chrimes	Dr Samantha Balaton-Chrimes, Lecturer in International Relations	Theories of power; development; colonialism, post colonialism and decoloniality; indigenous studies; intercultural communication. Area interest - Kenya and India.		AIP211 Politics of Development. This is a second year elective in the politics major and includes multiple case studies from Africa. ADS734 Political Development Record. This is a core unit in the Master of International Community Development and includes a major case study on Kenya.	sam.b@deakin.edu.au
Deakin University	Dr Ruth Jackson	Dr Ruth Ethel Jackson, Research Fellow, Faculty of Arts and Education	Maternal, neonatal and child health in Ethiopia.			r.jackson@deakin.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

Edith Cowan University	Dr Kwadwo Adusei-Asante	Dr Kwadwo Adusei-Asante, Senior Lecturer in Social Science, School of Arts and Humanities	African studies; community and international development; equity issues in higher education; gender and development; Pentecostalism; social impact assessment and program evaluation.				k.adusei@ecu.edu.au
Edith Cowan University	Associate Professor Trevor Cullen	Associate Professor Trevor Cullen, Professor of Journalism	Health reporting; health communications and media coverage of infectious diseases, especially HIV.				t.cullen@ecu.edu.au
Edith Cowan University	Dr Yvonne Haig	Dr Yvonne Haig, Senior Lecturer in the School of Education	The education of culturally and linguistically diverse students including African refugee background students.				y.haig@ecu.edu.au
Edith Cowan University	Dr David Robinson	Dr David Robinson, Lecturer in the School of Arts and Humanities	USA policy and perspectives on the independence struggle and post colonial state in Mozambique.				d.robinson@ecu.edu.a u

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	Federation University	Drr Andrew West	Dr Andrew West, Head of Business and Economics	The application of moral philosophy to aspects of accounting and business; applying virtue ethics in the accounting profession; the applicability of moral relativism to global issues in business ethics. Area interest - South Africa.			Andrew.West@federation.edu.au
	Federation University	Dr Soma Pillay	Dr Soma Pillay, Senior Lecturer in Management, Business School	Governance issues in developing countries. Area interest - South Africa.			Soma.Pillay@federation.edu.au
	Flinders University		Dr Clare Buswell, Adjunct Researcher, School of Social and Policy Studies. Flinders University	Comparative studies of Witchcraft in Kenya; power relations within marriage arrangements, gender relations in Eastern Africa; food production.			clare.buswell@flinders.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

Flinders University	Dr Tanya Lyons	Dr Tanya Lyons, School of History and International Relations	Australian foreign policy towards Africa; African Studies in Australia; pharmaceutical colonialism in Africa; gender mainstreaming; women and/in war; Zimbabwe liberation struggle; coffee.	INTR2008 Africa on a Global Stage. This topic examines the key issues in African international relations with a focus on how Africa is positioned globally, its political history and its prospects for the future. INTR3003 Africa: International Interventions. This topic focuses on international relations and covers issues such as the responsibility to protect; civil conflict; failed states; the Rwandan genocide; China in Africa; gender; and the African Union and security. INTR9055 African Politics Global		tanya.lyons@flinders.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

Griffith University	Dr Duan Biggs	Dr Duan Biggs, Senior Research Fellow, Social-Ecological Systems and Resilience. Adjunct at Stellenbosch University, South Africa.	Managing global supply chains for biodiversity outcomes; navigating the complexity of conservation's illegal wildlife trade crisis (including the ivory trade); nature-based tourism; community-based conservation; the development of wildlife and biodiversity economies.				d.biggs@griffith.edu.au
Griffith University	Dr Edwin Bikundo	Dr Edwin Bikundo, Senior Lecturer, Griffith Law School	International and comparative criminal law and justice; international law of human rights. Area interest - Kenya.				e.bikundo@griffith.edu.au
Griffith University	Dr Pravinder Kler	Dr Pravinder Kler, Senior Lecturer, Griffith Business School	The economics of education; the economic determinants of subjective wellbeing; economic development; financial market regulation; civil war and conflict spill over in sub-Saharan Africa.				p.kler@griffith.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

Griffith University	Dr Olivera Simic	Dr Olivera Simic, Senior Lecturer, Griffith Law School	International criminal justice and transitional justice; international peacekeeping; international human rights law; gender and post conflict state building.		5223LAW Transitional Justice and the Rule of Law. This undergraduate course examines the evolution of transitional justice theory and practice, including truth commissions, trials and traditional practices, in such contexts as post-apartheid South Africa and post-genocide Bosnia, Cambodia and Rwanda.	o.simic@griffith.edu.au
James Cook University	Professor Paul Dirks	Professor Paul Dirks, Professor of Geology, College of Science and Engineering	The tectonics and the topography of the African Plate; metallogenesis of Archaean terranes in Africa; the use of GIS as a tool for regional, structural and tectonic interpretations; linking dynamic landscapes in Africa to human evolution; mining and development.			paul.dirks@jcu.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

James Cook University	Professor Bruce Gunnow	Professor Bruce Gunnow, College of Public Health, Medical and Vet Sciences. Extraordinary Professor, University of Pretoria.	Food security and biosecurity in the tropics; animal health economics and risk assessment; One Health models for poverty alleviation and gender equality.		Teaches a range of units in Veterinary Science with a specialisation in Preventative Medicine (Epidemiology). Area focus - Southern Africa.	bruce.gunnow@jcu.edu.au
LaTrobe University	Dr Elizabeth Dimock	Dr Elizabeth Dimock, Honorary Research Associate, History	Women, Mission, Church and Imperialism in Britain and Uganda: 1895 to the 1960s.			e.dimock@latrobe.edu.au
LaTrobe University	Dr David Dorward	Dr David Dorward, Honorary Research Associate, History	Cultural history; Africa; the history of Africa; the political economy of Africa.			d.dorward@latrobe.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

LaTrobe University	Dr Trevor Edwards	Dr Trevor Edwards, Lecturer, Biological Sciences. Honorary Associate Professor, University of KwaZulu-Natal.	Wildlife and conservation biology; behavioural ecology; plant ecology; systematics and evolutionary biology.			trevor.edwards@latrobe.edu.au
LaTrobe University	Dr Andy Herries	Dr Andy I.R. Herries, Associate Professor, Palaeoanthropology and Geoarchaeology	The geochronology of human origins and the Early to Middle Stone Age transition; archaeological science (archaeomagnetism, archaeological geophysics, geochemistry, synchrotron radiation, sourcing/residues).	Australian-South African Geoarchaeological and Paleanthropological Field School at the Drimolen hominin site (June annually) and Amanzi Springs Palaeolithic Site (Feb annually), South Africa.		a.herries@latrobe.edu.au
LaTrobe University	Dr Apollo Nsubuga-Kyobe	Dr Apollo Nsubuga-Kyobe, Lecturer, Management	Ethnic and emerging communities' issues; settling sub-Saharan Africans in Australia.			a.nsubuga-kyobe@latrobe.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	Latrobe University	Dr Nicola Stern	Dr Nicola Stern, Senior Lecturer, Graduate Research Coordinator, Archaeology	African archaeology; landscape archaeology; site formation processes and issues of time and scale; the evolution of human behaviour; the global dispersal of modern humans.	ARC2AFR African Archaeology. This unit reviews current understanding of the narrative and dynamics of the earliest phases of humanity and the trajectories that helped shape modern Africa.	HUS1THJ The Human Journey; ARC3PAL Palaeolithic Archaeology; AER3ATE Ancient Technologies.	n.stern@latrobe.edu.au
	LaTrobe University	Professor Sue Thomas	Professor Sue Thomas, Professor English	Historical approaches to Caribbean literature; Caribbean and Atlantic history; modernism, colonialism and decolonisation; colonial discourse analysis.	ENG3PRE Postcolonial Reading. An introduction to postcolonial reading practice through the study of modernist writing in English, including works by J. Coetzee, J. Conrad, C. Achebe, and J Rhys.		s.thomas@latrobe.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	Macquarie University	Dr Noah Bassil	Dr Noah Bassil, Senior Lecturer, Politics and International Relations	Global political economy; colonialism and post-colonialism; the political sociology of states in the Middle East and North Africa. Area interest - Sudan.			noah.bassil@mq.edu.au
	Macquarie University	CMENAS	Dr Noah Bassil, Director, Centre for Middle East and North African Studies (CMENAS)	CMENAS aims, through research, teaching and public engagement, to reveal the full extent of the diversity and complexity of the part of the world sometimes called the Middle East and North Africa, sometimes the Arab World and other times the Muslim World.			noah.bassil@mq.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

Macquarie University	Associate Professor Geoffrey Hawker	Associate Professor Geoffrey Hawker, Department of Modern History, Politics and International Relations			POL255 African Politics and Globalisation. Globalisation poses special challenges for Africa. This unit examines contemporary debates about the political processes of globalisation by focusing on sub-Saharan Africa and the relations of its politics with others in Africa and the world. Issues of poverty, development, aid, and trade are considered.	Geoffrey.Hawker@mq.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

Macquarie University	Associate Professor Jan-Louis Kruger	Associate Professor Jan-Louis Kruger, Professor in Translating and Interpreting. Extra-ordinary Professor in the School of Languages, North-West University, South Africa	Multilingualism in South Africa; audio-visual translation; subtitling and subtitler training.				JanLouis.Kruger@mq.edu.au
Murdoch University	Africa Research Group	Africa Research Group	A trans-disciplinary group with strong ties to African-based researchers. Its members focus on African research questions and collaborate with African industry, academic institutions, government agencies and NGOs.				d.doepel@murdoch.edu.au N.Castagnette@murdoch.edu.au
Murdoch University	David Doepel	David Doepel, Chair, African Research Group	Policy settings for structural transformation in an African context, the nexus between the extractive industries and the agricultural sector and farming system innovations.				d.doepel@murdoch.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

Murdoch University	Dr Ryan Admiraal	Dr Ryan Admiraal, Lecturer, Mathematics and Statistics, School of Engineering and Information Technology	Statistical methodology for the social sciences; analysis of survey data; experimental design; water, sanitation and hygiene; social network analysis with applications to sexually transmitted diseases. Area interest - Mozambique.				R.Admiraal@murdoch.edu.au
Murdoch University	Dr Treena Burgess	Dr Treena Burgess, Senior Lecturer in Plant Sciences. Adjunct at the University of Pretoria, South Africa.	The biology, ecology and genetics of beneficial and detrimental microorganisms in natural ecosystems, plantation forestry and horticulture, with a focus on biodiversity and biosecurity issues. Area interest - South Africa.				tburgess@murdoch.edu.au
Murdoch University	Dr John Davis	Dr John Davis, Research Fellow,	Sustainable development particularly in relation to international aid, rural development and natural resource management. Area interest - South Africa, Zambia and Malawi.				J.K.Davis@murdoch.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017

- compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	Murdoch University	Professor John Howieson	Professor John Howieson, Research Director, Crops and Plant Sciences	Sustainable agriculture, specialising in nitrogen fixation of legume crops; food security in Africa.			J.Howieson@murdoch.edu.au
	Murdoch University	Professor Samuel Makinda	Professor Samuel Makinda, International Relations and Security Studies, School of Business and Governance	Security, counter-terrorism and counter-insurgency; global governance, democratisation and the United Nations; international relations theories.			S.Makinda@murdoch.edu.au
	Murdoch University	Dr Mark McHenry	Dr Mark P McHenry, School of Engineering and Information Technology	Clean energy technology; agricultural system productivity; international, national and rural development; technology performance; climate change policy; carbon markets; and water intensive technology. Area interest- Mozambique, Liberia and Kenya.			m.mchenry@murdoch.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	Murdoch University	Associate Professor Martin Mhando	Associate Professor Martin Mhando, Senior Lecturer in the School of Media, Communication and Culture	Documentary theory; film production praxis; African cinema; world cinema and indigenous knowledge.			M.Mhando@murdoch.edu.au
	Murdoch University	Associate Professor Angus Morrison-Saunders	Associate Professor Angus Morrison-Saunders, Environmental Assessment. Extraordinary Professor in Environmental Sciences and Management at North West University, South Africa.	Sustainability assessment; environmental impact assessment; environmental policy and management performance evaluation; evaluation of ecotourism; environmental education programme; and environmental assessment for Australian mining companies operating in Africa.			A.Morrison-Saunders@murdoch.edu.au
	Murdoch University	Dr Dennis Ndonga	Dr Dennis Ndonga, Associate Lecturer, School of Law	Trade law, e-commerce law, and international economic law; e-commerce in Africa.			D.Ndonga@murdoch.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	Murdoch University	Dr Rochelle Spencer	Dr Rochelle Spencer, Lecturer in Anthropology	Capacity building; agro-enterprise in Africa; economies in transition; development and sustainability.			Rochelle.Spencer@murdoch.edu.au
	Murdoch University	Dr Casta Tungaraza	Dr Casta Tungaraza, Manager of the Equal Opportunity Office	Race relations; multiculturalism; women's rights and leadership; African-Australians.			c.tungaraza@murdoch.edu.au
	Queensland University of Technology	Distinguished Professor James Dale	Distinguished Professor James Dale, Director of the Centre for Tropical Crops and Bio-commodities	Biofortification of bananas for Africa; molecular farming for high value medical proteins, including vaccines, in tobacco and bioethanol from sugarcane; the development of disease resistance in genetically modified bananas, papaya and sugarcane. Area interest - Uganda, Kenya, Tanzania.			j.dale@qut.edu.au
	Queensland University of Technology	Associate Professor Jane Shakespeare-Finch	Associate Professor Jane Shakespeare-Finch, Faculty of Health	Mental health; post traumatic stress; resilience; trauma; counselling; the role of distal and proximate culture on post trauma outcomes: African and Australian populations.			j.shakespeare-finch@qut.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

RMIT University	Associate Professor Anne Brown	Associate Professor Anne Brown, Principal Research Fellow - Centre for Global Research	Peace and conflict studies; peace building; conflict prevention; conflict transformation and management; dialogue processes; reconciliation; working with legacies of violence; international politics, security and development. Area interests - Africa and Asia-Pacific.		Course Coordinator of Governance and Democracy in Development Course Coordinator of Gender and Development	anne.brown@rmit.edu.au
RMIT University	Dr Takele Soboka Bulto	Dr Takele Soboka Bulto, Senior Lecturer in Law	International law; human rights; economic, social and cultural rights; law of international water courses.			takele.bulto@rmit.edu.au
RMIT University	Dr Jonathan Makuwira	Dr Jonathan Makuwira, Consultant - School of Global, Urban and Social Studies	Aid effectiveness; poverty alleviation/eradication in developing countries; post-conflict development and peace building; community development and capacity building; peace and development education in fragile states/democracies. Area interest Malawi.	HUSO2317 Contemporary Africa. This course aims to enhance understanding of the current and contemporary issues confronting Africa from historical social, political, economic and cultural perspectives.		jonathan.makuwira@rmit.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	RMIT University	Professor Jock McCulloch	Emeritus Professor Jock McCulloch, History	Colonial history of southern Africa; politics of development; medical sociology.			jock.mcculloch@rmit.edu.au
	Swinburne University of Technology	Associate Professor Kwamena Kwansah-Aidoo	Associate Professor Kwamena Kwansah-Aidoo, Marketing/Public Relations	Communication; journalism; media studies in relation to Africa and Africans in Australia.			kkwansah@swin.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

(The) University of Adelaide	Professor Dorothy Driver	Professor Dorothy Driver, Visiting Research Fellow, English and Creative Writing	Constructions and representations of gender and race under apartheid and after apartheid; the writings of women; South African literature written in English.	ENGL2103 Haunted Histories: South African Writing. South African writing engages with power and its after- effects in colonialism and apartheid, in the struggle against apartheid and in the democratic present. This course investigates the ways in which literature captures the reverberations in the present of the country's fraught past through reading a variety of short texts and two internationally acclaimed and politically bold novels by N. Gordimer and Z. Wicomb.		dorothy.driver@adelaide.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	(The) University of Adelaide	Dr Judith Gomersall	Dr Judith Gomersall, Research Fellow, School of Translational Health Science	Child well-being and poverty profiling to support interventions that improve outcomes of marginalised children. Area interest - South Africa.		judith.gomersall@adelaide.edu.au
	(The) University of Adelaide	Dr Andrew Skuse	Dr Andrew Skuse, Professor of Anthropology and Development Studies	The role that communication and access to information play in supporting processes of development, poverty reduction, empowerment, humanitarianism and social change. Area interest - Malawi, Rwanda, Zimbabwe, South Africa.	ANTH2036 Anthropology of Conflict and Crisis. This course addresses the issues of conflict and complex political and ecological emergencies from a comparative anthropological perspective. Case studies are drawn from a number of countries including Zimbabwe.	andrew.skuse@adelaide.edu.au
	University of Canberra	Dr Yohannes Kinfu	Dr Yohannes Kinfu Senior Research Fellow, UC Health Research Institute	Medical economics; statistical and health demography. Area interest - sub Saharan Africa.		yohannes.kinfu@canberra.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	(The) University of Melbourne	Dr Sarah Balkin	Dr Sarah Balkin, Lecturer in English and Theatre Studies	Nineteenth and twentieth- century theatre; fin de siecle literature and culture; theatrical and literary modernism; genre; cultural production; celebrity; material culture; gender and sexuality.		Modernism and Avant Garde (ENGL20022). Working across genres and national literature, students will learn about modernist movements such as dada, futurism, surrealism, expressionism, theatre of the absurd, the African -American cultural revolution known as the Harlem Renaissance, the francophone négritude movement, and the queer enclaves of Paris's Left Bank and New York's Greenwich Village.	sarah.balkin@unimelb.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

(The) University of Melbourne	Associate Professor Simon Batterbury	Associate Professor Simon Batterbury, Geography and Resource Management	Adaptation to climate change; agrarian change; bicycles and sustainable transport; area studies; environment and development paths; political ecology of natural resource management; sustainable development and the environment; urban transport.	GEOG(30024) Africa: Environment, Development, People. This subject introduces students to the physical environment, history and development challenges facing contemporary sub- Saharan Africa. It will examine intellectual and ethical debates surrounding the strategies undertaken by postcolonial African states and the overseas development 'industry' to tackle poverty, inequality, environmental change and the colonial legacy.		simonpjb@unimelb.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

(The) University of Melbourne	Dr Graeme Counsel	Dr Graeme Counsel, Lecturer and Honorary Fellow, Melbourne Conservatorium of Music	The nexus of music and politics, drawing from ethnomusicology, cultural studies and history. Sound archives, festivals, intangible cultural heritage, nationalism and identity, griots and the Mandé diaspora.	African Music and Dance (MUSI10148). African Music and Dance Ensemble 1 (MUSI10021). African Music and Dance Ensemble 2 (MUSI10022). Integrating practical and academic study, these subjects will focus on understanding the musical complexities of West African music and dance both in its sociocultural context and through hands- on participation in rehearsals and lectures. Weekly rehearsals and a series of lectures covering all aspects of traditional music from West Africa - drumming, singing		counselg@unimelb.edu .au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

(The) University of Melbourne	Dr Rachel Diprose	Dr Rachel Diprose, School of Social and Political Sciences	The political economy and sociology of conflict, state- building and development; patterns of violence; processes of mobilisation and conflict de- escalation; group dynamics and identity politics; conflict transformation and peace building.	DEVT90049 Politics and Contested Development: Africa. This subject explores the contested processes of socio-economic and political- institutional change across a variety of contexts in sub- Saharan Africa, together with the underlying dynamics of identity formation and allegiance, state formation, power divides and conflict.		rachel.diprose@unimelb.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

(The) University of Melbourne	Professor David Goodman	Professor David Goodman, Historical and Philosophical Studies	American history		Race in America (HIST30059). This subject surveys the history of race in America over centuries. The history of African Americans from slavery through the eras of legal segregation, the civil rights era and beyond, forms a central strand in the subject. The subject also studies Native American history, and the long history of US relations with Hispanic people.	d.goodman@unimelb.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

(The) University of Melbourne	Dr Elise Klein	Dr Elise Klein, Social and Political Sciences	Development studies; post-colonial and feminist theories of development; psychologisation of development interventions; women's agency; neoliberal subjectivities; economic rights and indigenous development. Area interest - Mali.	DEVT90049 Politics and Contested Development: Africa. This subject explores the contested processes of socio-economic and political-institutional change across a variety of contexts in sub-Saharan Africa, together with the underlying dynamics of identity formation and allegiance, state formation, power divides and conflict.		elise.klein@unimelb.edu.au
(The) University of Melbourne	Dr Melissa Phillips	Dr Melissa Phillips, Honorary Fellow in Social and Political Sciences	Refugee protection and migration; migration, mobility and displacement; the role of diasporas as effective agents of humanitarian assistance and development in their country of origin; multiculturalism; migrant and refugee settlement; transit migration.			phim@unimelb.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

(The) University of Melbourne	Dr Juliet Rogers	Dr Juliet Rogers, Senior Lecturer in Criminology, School of Political Sciences	Trauma; psychoanalysis; postcolonial and legal theory; transitional justice; the rhetoric and practices of reconciliation and conflict resolution including those that involve the application of artistic media, including animation and sound.		Violence, Trauma and Reconciliation (CRIM90017) . This subject explores the forms of trauma people experience as a response to mass violence and how trauma propels calls for apologies, truth commissions, retribution and torture. Case studies include South Africa, Northern Ireland, Rwanda, Australia and Nazi Germany.	julietr@unimelb.edu.a u

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

(The) University of Melbourne	Dr Violeta Schubert	Dr Violeta Schubert, Lecturer, Development Studies Program, Social and Political Sciences	Social and cultural anthropology; anthropology of development; cultural analysis; politics and history; political theory.		Development, Culture and Conflict (DEVT50001). The end of the Cold War and the announcement of the 'New World Order' transformed the terrain for the practice of development, humanitarian intervention and aid. This subject examines the new context for development using case studies from Africa, the Middle East and South Asia.	violetas@unimelb.edu. au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

(The) University of Melbourne	Dr Robert Vincs	Dr Robert Vincs, Victorian College of the Arts (VCA), Melbourne Conservatorium of Music (MCM)	The creative process; the practice of improvised music and transcendent states of being arising from music performance.		Jazz: The Improvisatory Spirit (MUSI10202) . This subject examines improvisation as it has manifested itself in Jazz and other African American music. It focuses on the spirit of improvisation and its essential nature taking into account the concepts of imagination, freedom and individual expression.	rvincs@unimelb.edu.a u

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	(The) University of Melbourne	Dr Steven Welch	Dr Steven Welch, Historical and Philosophical Studies	The history of genocide with a primary focus on the military and social history of the Third Reich.		The Holocaust and Genocide (HIST20013). This subject will provide a detailed examination of the Holocaust and place it within the broader comparative history of genocide and mass violence with case studies from Africa and the Asia Pacific region. It will also examine key historical debates related to studies of the Holocaust, genocide and mass violence.	s.welch@unimelb.edu. au
	University of New England	Dr Inga Brasche	Dr Inga Brasche, Lecturer in Social Science Education, School of Education	Sociological history of sub- Saharan Africa and indigenous Australia; post-colonial identity in Africa; cultural development; the politics of international development practice; social and cultural capital; comparative social movements.			ibrasche@une.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	University of New England	Associate Professor Charles Kivunja	Associate Professor Charles Kivunja, School of Education	Foundational theories of learning, teaching and assessment (pedagogy); educational leadership; the use of social media technologies in pedagogy. Area interest - Zambia, Uganda, Kenya and South Africa.			ckivunja@une.edu.au
	University of New England	Associate Professor Finex Ndhlovu	Associate Professor Finex Ndhlovu, School of Behavioural and Social Sciences	Language policy and politics; language and identity formation; African migrant languages and identities; cross-border languages and trans-national identities; African diaspora identities; language and citizenship; postcolonial African identities; language and discourses of everyday forms of exclusion in Australia and Africa.			fndhlovu@une.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	University of New England	Dr Rebecca Spence	Dr Rebecca Spence, Senior Lecturer in Peace Studies, School of Humanities	Recovery, reconstruction and reconciliation; peace processes; peacekeeping, peacemaking and peace building; nonviolence and nonviolent action; community development; women and peacebuilding. Area interest - South Africa.		PEAC 352/452/552 Peace Building in Post-Conflict Situations. This unit explores the distinctions between the processes of peacekeeping, peacemaking and peace building in conflict situations. It focuses on the main tasks in recovery and reconstruction using detailed case studies from Asia, the Pacific, Africa and Europe. PEAC354/454/554 Post-Conflict Justice and Reconciliation Processes. This unit critically explores processes of reconciliation and justice associated with post-conflict situations. It examines legal and political mechanisms	rspence1@une.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	University of New England	Professor Helen Ware	Professor Helen Ware, Peace Studies, School of Humanities	Forms of government that mix Western models and non-Western traditions; the roles of governments and governance in maintaining peace; transitional justice; African development.			hware@une.edu.au
	University of New South Wales	Dr Mengistu Amberber	Dr Mengistu Amberber, Senior Lecturer in Linguistics, School of Languages and Linguistics	Lexical semantics, grammatical theory, the semantics-syntax interface and linguistic typology. Language interest - Amharic.			m.amberber@unsw.edu.au
	University of New South Wales	Associate Professor Eleanor Hancock	Associate Professor Eleanor Hancock, Discipline Head of History, School of Humanities and Social Sciences	Imperialism, including German models for Africa's economic development; Nigeria 1914 to the present.			e.hancock@adfa.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
- compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	University of New South Wales	Dr Alec Thornton	Dr Alec Thornton, Senior Lecturer in Development Geography, School of Physical, Environment and Mathematical Sciences.	Community-based development, social movements and social equity in developing and developed countries; urban agriculture as a form of social, food and environmental justice in sub-Saharan Africa, Australia, Germany and the US.			a.thornton@unsw.edu. au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

University of Newcastle	Professor Mel Gray	Professor Mel Gray, School of Humanities and Social Science (Social Work)	Developmental social work in South Africa; cross-cultural and comparative social work internationally; indigenous social work policy and practice.		Indigenous Health Around the World. This course explores the health of indigenous peoples throughout the colonised world including Australia, New Zealand, Africa and America. It explores European imperialism and its impact on the health of indigenous peoples and examines contemporary issues faced by modern society in bringing equity to indigenous people.	mel.gray@newcastle.edu.au
University of Notre Dame	Dr Denise Buiten	Dr Denise Buiten, Senior Lecturer, School of Arts and Sciences. Discipline Coordinator - Social Justice	Sociology and social justice, with a focus on gender and other vectors of inequality; gender representations in the media; gender-based violence. Area interest - South Africa.			denise.buiten@nd.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	University of Notre Dame	Professor Marguerite Maher	Professor Marguerite Maher, Dean of Education	Inclusive education; early childhood education; education at the cultural interface. Area interest - South Africa and Kenya.			Marguerite.Maher@nd.edu.au
	University of Queensland	Associate Professor John Asafu-Adjaye	Associate Professor John Asafu-Adjaye, Lecturer, School of Economics	Environmental and natural resource economics; economic impact analysis; economic modelling including computable general equilibrium (CGE) modelling; economic and environmental policy analysis of African and Asia-Pacific economies including Ghana, Kenya and South Africa.			j.asafuadiaye@uq.edu.au
	University of Queensland	Honorary Professor Pamela Christie	Honorary Professor Pamela Christie, School of Education. Professor in the School of Education, University of Cape Town.	Joint research projects on reconciliation and pedagogy in Australia and South Africa; schooling, globalisation and refugees in Queensland;			p.christie@uq.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	University of Queensland	Dr Fernanda Claudio	Dr Fernanda Claudio, Honorary Research Fellow, School of Social Sciences	Social and cultural anthropology; medical anthropology and international development; human resources for health in disaster response; African migrant health in Australia.			f.claudio@uq.edu.au
	University of Queensland	Associate Professor Eric Louw	Associate Professor Eric Louw, School of Communication and Arts. Research Fellow at the University of South Africa.	Political communication; South African political discourse; South African media.			e.louw@uq.edu.au
	University of Queensland	Associate Professor Kristen Lyons	Associate Professor Kristen Lyons, School of Social Sciences	The political ecology of resource conflicts in the global south. Area interest - Uganda.			k.lyons@uq.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	University of Queensland	Dr Kathryn Sturman	Dr Kathryn Sturman, Senior Research Fellow, Centre for Social Responsibility in Mining	International governance initiatives in the extractive industries with special expertise in Africa and Southeast Asia; mining and development; resource nationalism; subnational conflict dynamics arising from resource extraction.			k.sturman@uq.edu.au
	University of Queensland	Dr Peter Westoby	Dr Peter Westoby, Senior Lecturer, School of Social Sciences	Community development theory and practice; forced migration studies; peace and conflict studies; dialogue theory and practice. Area interest - South Africa, Uganda.			p.westoby@uq.edu.au
	University of South Australia	Professor Pal Ahluwalia	Professor Pal Ahluwalia, Pro Vice-Chancellor Research and Innovation	Social and cultural theory; postcolonial theory and the processes of diaspora, exile and migration.			Pal.Ahluwalia@unisa.edu.au
	University of South Australia	Dr Ibrahima Diallo	Dr Ibrahima Diallo, Senior Lecturer, Francophone Studies and Applied Linguistics	Applied linguistics (language planning and language-in-education), francophone studies (the geopolitics and the politics of French in Francophone Africa), and Islamic education (Quranic literacy, Islamic epistemology and Ajami).			Ibrahima.Diallo@unisa.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	University of South Australia	Dr Nina Evans	Dr Nina Evans, School of Information Technology and Mathematical Sciences	Promotion of fusion on the business - IT interface.			Nina.Evans@unisa.edu.au
	University of South Australia	Associate Professor Kathleen Heugh	Associate Professor Kathleen Heugh, Applied Linguistics, School of Communication, International Studies and Languages	Language policy and multi-lingual education ; system-wide and multi-country evaluation of languages and literacy in education. Area interest - sub-Saharan Africa.			Kathleen.Heugh@unisa.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	(The) University of South Australia	Dr Denise Wood	Dr Denise Wood, Senior Research Fellow, School of Communication , International Studies and Languages. Extraordinary Professor in the Faculty of Education, University of the Western Cape, South Africa.	The potential of new media technologies such as participatory web 2.0 and 3D virtual learning environments to enhance the educational and social participation of young people in remote regional environments. Area interest - South Africa.			Denise.Wood@unisa.edu.au
	University of Southern Queensland	Dr Victor Igreja	Dr Victor Igreja, Senior Lecturer in International Relations	Anthropology; international studies of war and peace, justice and reconciliation; violence and civil war; trauma and recover; the politics of memory. Area interest - Mozambique.			Victor.Igreja@usq.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

(The) University of Sydney	AAUN	Australia Africa Universities Network (AAUN), Executive Director - Professor John Hearn, University of Sydney	A group of leading universities in Australia and Africa, connecting researchers and academics through institutional partnerships in order to address challenges facing both continents.				http://aaun.edu.au aaun@events@sydney.edu.au
(The) University of Sydney	Professor Robert Cumming	Professor Robert Cumming, Professor of Epidemiology, and Geriatric Medicine	Non-communicable diseases and ageing in developing countries in Asia and Africa.				robert.cumming@sydney.edu.au
(The) University of Sydney	Dr Wendy Lambourne	Dr Wendy Lambourne, Senior Lecturer, Centre for Peace and Conflict Studies	Transitional justice; peacebuilding; reconciliation; trauma healing; restorative justice; genocide; United Nations; sub-Saharan Africa.				wendy.lambourne@sydney.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	(The) University of Sydney	Associate Professor Joel Negin	Associate Professor Joel Negin, Head of School of Public Health	Health planning; health inequalities; global health; health policy; HIV/AIDS. Area interest - sub-Saharan Africa.			joel.negin@sydney.edu.au
	(The) University of Sydney	Dr George Odhiambo	Dr George Odhiambo, Senior Lecturer in Educational Leadership and Management	Migration and brain drain in higher education institutions in Kenya and its implications; reforming initial teacher education in Ghana; quality assurance in higher education in Kenya.			george.odhiambo@sydney.edu.au
	(The) University of Sydney	Dr Nesrin Varol	Dr Nesrin Varol, Senior Clinical Lecturer, School of Medicine	Partnership for the abandonment of female genital cutting in East Africa.			nesrin.varol@sydney.edu.au
	University of New England	Professor Russell McDougall	Professor Russell McDougall, School of Arts	Comparative Australian, Caribbean and West African literatures in English; post-colonial theory and indigeneity.			rmcdougall@une.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	University of Tasmania	Dr Isabelle Bartkowiak-Theron	Dr Isabelle Bartkowiak-Theron, Senior Lecturer, School of Social Sciences	The qualitative and quantitative study of policing and policing services targeting vulnerable populations; bridging the gap between police and refugee communities.			isabelle.bartkowiaktheron@utas.edu.au
	University of Tasmania	Professor Tony Simoes da Silva	Professor Tony Simoes da Silva, Head of the School of Humanities	Postcolonial writing and theory; contemporary Anglophone writing including life writing and critical theory; aspects of Australian literature. His focus is on the African diaspora, notably on African literature and culture (South and West Africa, Angola, Mozambique and the Cape Verde Islands).			Tony.simoesda Silva@utas.edu.au
	University of Technology Sydney	Associate Professor Beth Goldblatt	Associate Professor Beth Goldblatt, Faculty of Law. Honorary Research Fellow, University of Witwatersrand South Africa.	Gender; feminist legal theory; equality and non-discrimination; human rights; comparative constitutional law; family law; disability; social and economic rights; the right to social security; transitional justice.			Beth.Goldblatt@uts.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	University of Technology Sydney	Dr Franklin Obeng-Odoom	Dr Franklin Obeng-Odoom, Senior Lecturer in Property Economics at the School of Built Environment	The political economy of development, cities and natural resources; governance and urbanisation in Africa. Area interest - Ghana.			Franklin.Obeng-Odoom@uts.edu.au
	University of the Sunshine Coast	Dr Paul Williams	Dr Paul Williams, Senior Lecturer, Creative Writing	Has published short stories, critical articles and educational materials for high schools in Africa. Research areas include post colonialism; fiction as academic discourse.			pwillia3@usc.edu.au
	(The) University of Western Australia	UWA African Research Cluster	UWA African Research Cluster	Launched in 2015 to develop, coordinate and promote high-quality, relevant and ethical Africa-related research at UWA.			david.mickler@uwa.edu.au
	(The) University of Western Australia	Dr Laura Boykin	Dr Laura Boykin, Senior Research Fellow, School of Molecular Sciences	The use of genomes and supercomputing to help small farmers in sub-Saharan African control whiteflies; computational biology; invasion biology; global biosecurity.			laura.boykin@uwa.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

(The) University of Western Australia	Dr Andrea Emberly	Dr Andrea Emberly, Honorary Research Fellow, Music	The study of children's music with special regard to children's musical culture in South Africa; music as children's 'edutainment'; children's ethnographies; children as participants in academic research projects.			music@uwa.edu.au
(The) University of Western Australia	Associate Professor Robert Faulkner	Associate Professor Robert Faulkner, Adjunct research Fellow, Graduate School of Education	Music education and development (children composing, teaching and learning world music (including Zimbabwean marimba, mbira, dance and song); social psychology of music.			robert.faulkner@uwa.edu.au
(The) University of Western Australia	Dr Jamie Hampson	Dr Jamie Hampson, Lecturer in Archaeology	Rock art and heritage studies; rock art regionalism; the management and presentation of rock art sites to the public; sociopolitics and indigenous identity; the commodification of archaeological heritage. Area interest - USA, South Africa, Australia and India.			jamie.hampson@uwa.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

(The) University of Western Australia	Dr Jeremy Martens	Dr Jeremy Martens, Senior Lecturer, History	South African and British imperial history; race, gender and the law in nineteenth and twentieth century South Africa; the evolution of immigration restriction legislation in Australia, New Zealand and South Africa.	HIST3010 Introduction to African History. This unit introduces students to the rich history of Africa. It begins with a discussion of Eurocentrism and the concepts of 'agency' and 'structure' and examines African slavery, conflict over land and resources and the variety of African responses to European colonialism from violent resistance to accommodation.		jeremy.martens@uwa. edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	(The) University of Western Australia	Dr David Mickler	Dr David Mickler, Lecturer, Political Science and International Relations	International responses to acute human insecurity in Africa; the intersection of global and regional governance in Africa; contemporary Australia-Africa relations.	POLS5671 Peace and Security in Africa. This unit explores the main forms of insecurity in contemporary Africa. It examines the various actors and institutions that either threaten security or attempt to provide and manage it. Relations of security governance at different levels are explored through case studies such as Darfur, Mali, Libya, Somalia, DR Congo and Rwanda. POLS3334 The International Politics of Africa. This unit explores and critically analyses the contemporary international politics	david.mickler@uwa.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	(The) University of Western Australia	Dr Amin Mugera	Dr Amin Mugera, Senior Lecturer, School of Agriculture and Environment	The relationship between macroeconomic policies and agricultural productivity across different countries; agribusiness; poverty and vulnerability analysis.			amin.mugera@uwa.edu.au
	(The) University of Western Australia	Dr Sven Ouzman	Dr Sven Ouzman, Discipline Chair Archaeology	Rock art; graffiti; heritage politics; indigenous knowledge; intellectual property issues; landscape; creolisation and cross- cultural contact; monuments; origins; understandings of time. Area interest - Botswana, Namibia and South Africa.			sven.ouzman@uwa.edu.au
	(The) University of Western Australia	Professor Ben Smith	Professor Ben Smith, Professor of World Rock Art	African archaeology; world rock art; archaeological theory and method; heritage and society.			benjamin.smith@uwa.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	University of Wollongong	Professor Martin Tsamenyi	Professor Martin Tsamenyi, Professor Emeritus of Law of the Australian National centre for Ocean Resources and Security	Fisheries law; monitoring, control and surveillance; shipping law. Area interest - Ghana.			martin.tsamenyi@uow.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

Victoria University	Dr Charles Mphande	Dr Charles Mphande, Senior Lecturer, College of Arts and Education	Communications and sustained development; diasporas, trade, development and Africa; migration, development and Africa; urbanisation and poverty in the Global South.	Contemporary Africa and Social Change ASS2028/ASS5080. This unit seeks to engage students in both local and global analysis of development and social change as they relate to contemporary Africa. It provides a base to critically explore various dimensions of development in Africa as a whole, particular regional blocs and particular countries.		charles.mphande@vu.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

Western Sydney University	Dr Brett Bennett	Dr Brett Bennett, Associate Professor in Modern History. Senior Research Associate at the University of Johannesburg.	Globalisation of protected areas; forestry for economic and social development; forestry and water conservation in South Africa.			b.bennett@westernsydney.edu.au
Western Sydney University	Dr Manisha Dayal	Dr Manisha Dayal, Lecturer in Anatomy	Forensic anthropological standards; age estimation from skeletal remains. Area interest - South Africa.			M.Dayal@westernsydney.edu.au
Western Sydney University		Dr Paulin Djite, Lecturer, School of Languages and Linguistics	Language policy and planning; language-in-education planning; language and development. Africa focus.			p.djite@westernsydney.edu.au
Western Sydney University	Dr Virginia Mapedzahama	Dr Virginia Mapedzahama, Postdoc Fellow, School of Rural Medicine	Diaspora communities and transnationalism; health and well-being; race critical theory, racism, decoloniality, politics of the border and asylum; race and ethnic studies; race and sexuality studies; social and cultural diversity.			V.Mapedzahama@westernsydney.edu.au

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017

- compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	NEW ZEALAND
	INSTITUTION		NAME	FIELD OF RESEARCH/TEACHING	COURSE/UNIT with pure Africa focus	COURSE/UNIT with comparative Africa focus	CONTACT DETAILS
	Auckland University of Technology	Professor Rob Allen	Professor Rob Allen, Professor of Social History	African urban development; cultural history; comparative democratisation. Area interest - Zambia and Nigeria.			rob.allen@aut.ac.nz
	Auckland University of Technology	Dr Penny Neave	Dr Penny Neave, Lecturer, Postgraduate Public Health Program	Epidemiology of infectious diseases; migrant health; surveillance systems; malaria; public health; social-economic deprivation. Area interest - Nigeria, Ghana.			p.neave@aut.ac.nz
	Auckland University of Technology	Professor Edwina Pio	Professor Edwina Pio, Professor of Diversity, Faculty of Business, Economics and Law	Workplace diversity; religious diversity in organisations; ethnic minorities (including migrant women) in work and enterprise; ethnic entrepreneurship; Asian, African and other migrants in New Zealand.			edwina.pio@aut.ac.nz
	Massey University	Professor Bruce Glavovic	Professor Bruce Glavovic, School of People Environment and Planning	Comparative international experience in coastal sustainability; disaster risk reduction; post-disaster recover; adapting to climate change. Area interest - South Africa.			b.glavovic@massey.ac.nz

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	Massey University	Dr Gerard Prinsen	Dr Gerard Prinsen, Senior Lecturer, School of People, Environment and Planning	International development; development programmes in Africa; local governance; education and health services.			G.Prinsen@massey.ac.nz
	Toi-Ohomai Institute of Technology	Dr Leon Fourie	Dr Leon Fourie, Executive Dean in the Faculty of Creative Industries and Business	Human resource management; customer and service quality delivery in South Africa.			lfourie@unitec.ac.nz
	UNITEC Institute of Technology	Associate Professor Nigel Adams	Associate Professor Nigel Adams, Environmental and Animal Sciences	The feeding biology and bioenergetics of sub-Antarctic penguins and seabirds - commercial fish interactions off continental South Africa.			nadams@unitec.ac.nz
	UNITEC Institute of Technology	Dr Andries de Plessis	Dr Andries du Plessis, Senior Lecturer, Business Practice	HR/ER employment law; training in the mining industry in South Africa; conciliation, mediation and arbitration.			aduplessis@unitec.ac.nz

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
- compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	UNITEC Institute of Technology	Professor Pieter Nel	Professor Pieter Nel, Professor of Human Resource and Strategic Management	Human resource management and employment relations; training and development; the future profile of the HR profession.			pnel@unitec.ac.nz

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	University of Otago	Professor Tony Binns	Professor J.A.(Tony) Binns, Professor of Geography	Resource development and poverty alleviation, with particular reference to the dynamics of indigenous farming, pastoral and fishing food production systems; community-based development initiatives in South Africa; post-war community reconstruction in Sierra Leone; urban agriculture in sub-Saharan Africa.	GEOG212/382 Transformations in Developing Countries. This course critically examines the nature of various transformations in the 54 countries of Africa. It explores the reasons behind Africa's present condition and examines a number of key development issues such as environmental degradation, health, rural and urban livelihood strategies, community-based development, conflict, aid and trade. GEOG475 Sustaining Rural Livelihoods in Developing Countries. This		tony.binns@otago.ac.nz

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	University of Otago	Professor Kevin Clements	Professor Kevin Clements, Director of the New Zealand National Centre for Peace and Conflict Studies	Disarmament and arms control; conflict resolution; peacebuilding; preventative diplomacy development; peacebuilding in Africa.			kevin.clements@otago.ac.nz
	University of Otago	Professor John Crump	Professor John Crump, McKinlay Professor of Global Health, Co-Director of the Centre for International Health	The syndrome of fever and its causes; Salmonella and other invasive bacterial infections; HIV prevention, treatment and care; ethics in global health.			john.crump@otago.ac.nz
	University of Otago	Professor Philip Hill	Professor Philip Hill, Co-Director of the Centre of International Health	Infectious diseases; Mycobacterium tuberculosis infection and disease; Streptococcus pneumoniae carriage disease and vaccination; the epidemiology of tuberculosis in The Gambia.			philip.hill@otago.ac.nz

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

University of Otago	Professor Etienne Nel	Professor Etienne Nel, Department of Geography	Economic geography; local economic development; urban geography and livelihood strategies; economic and urban history and development in South Africa; local development and urban agriculture in Zambia.			Etienne.nel@otago.ac.nz
Victoria University of Wellington	Associate Professor Steve Behrendt	Associate Professor Steve Behrendt, Senior Lecturer in History, School of History, Philosophy, Political Science and International Relations	Transatlantic slave trade; pre-colonial African history; Caribbean history; British empire.	HIST331 The Transatlantic Slave Trade. The history of the transatlantic slave trade 1519-1867, and its impact on Europe, Africa and the Americas. Seminars discuss slavery in the modern world, the commercial organisation of the slave trade, shipboard disease and mortality, the development of the plantation complex in the Atlantic islands and the Americas, and abolition and slave emancipation.		steve.behrendt@vuw.ac.nz

Directory of Africanists and African Studies in Australian and New Zealand Universities 2017
 - compiled* by Wanda Warlick (UWA) - last updated 27th June 2017

	The AFSAAP PROJECT 2017 An Audit of African Studies in Australia 2017 –
	A Snapshot of Courses and Topics available in Australian and New Zealand Universities, in addition to names of researchers working on issues related to Africa*
	*A note on the Methodology: This audit was commissioned by AFSAAP.
	The research relied on basic search tools on the websites of Australian and New Zealand universities.
	The keywords used were either “Africa” and/or “African studies”.
	AFSAAP members provided background information to some entries and Google search tools were used to locate some researchers whos particular web profiles did not appear under university search engines.
	AFSAAP is grateful to Wanda Warlik for her assistance in producing this audit.
	AFSAAP acknowledges that the material in this audit may not be complete and is subject to change						