AFRICAN STUDIES ASSOCIATION OF AUSTRALIA

The African Studies Association of Australia (AFSAA) was formed in 1978 to promote a wider understanding of Africa in Australia. The Association produces a newsletter two-three times a year, sponsors an annual conference, and is seeking to expand its activities to sponsor African visitors, promote African Studies in schools, and increase the general awareness of African issues.

This Directory is being issued to facilitate contact among Africanists as well as to inform the media, government, and other interested people of people knowledgeable about Africa.

The members of the Executive Committee of AFSAA for 1979 are:

Professor D.A. Low (ANU)	President
Dr. Thomas Spear (La Trobe)	Secretary
Dr. David C. Dorward (La Trobe)	Treasurer
Dr. David Goldsworthy (Monash)	Members
Dr. Cherry Gertzel (Flinders)
Dr. James Polhemus (Deakin)
Dr. Geof Keeves (WAIIT)

Correspondence and membership enquiries should be directed to the Secretary, C/- Department of History, La Trobe University, Bundoora 3083.
